SUMMERHALL

Housed in the former Royal Dick Veterinary College, Summerhall is a multi-arts venue and cultural hub located in the heart of Edinburgh, Scotland. Summerhall hosts a year-round programme of visual, musical and performance arts and is known for its support of experimental and innovative creative work.

As well as a hub for Edinburgh's vibrant arts community, each year, in the month of August Summerhall transforms into a dynamic and exciting Fringe venue offering a diverse and eclectic programme of theatre productions, exhibitions and gigs.

COURTYARD COMMISSION PROJECT OPEN CALL

For the second year running we are delighted to announce the Summerhall Courtyard Commission Project and offer one artist the opportunity to create a site specific work to be launched for Fringe 2023 and exhibited on a permanent basis.

In light of current events and with cautious optimism for the future we ask artists to submit proposals for artworks that reflect on the theme of 'hope' Hope that art and culture will prevail, serve as a sanctuary, bring us together and make us resilient.

Head of Visual Arts
